XII. REPORTS

A. ZEO Staff Report

Zoning Enforcement Official, Hannah Gienau, briefly reviewed her staff report with the Commission. Director Burdick commented on the level of work that goes into an individual zoning permit.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

B. Planner’s Report

Director Burdick commented that she is concerned that the Commission accepting correspondence and public comment on parking regulations and that it seems to be usurping the statutory process of public hearings required for text amendment applications. She warned about perceived predisposition if they continue to accept documents from the public. Commissioner Ribe stated that she feels there is a fine line between the public comments that were presented to the Commission and the correspondence that was listed on the agenda. She stated that she also realizes that residents can come and say anything during public comment although she feels in this specific instance, she feels that is was a grey area. Commissioner Harwood stated that it would be less appropriate at the Planning & Zoning Subcommittee due to the nature of the subcommittee. Chairman Wood stated that he felt that the report shouldn't be on the agenda because they were not ready for a full review. He wanted an opportunity for the residents to speak to parking. Director Burdick commented that the document that Mr. Treaster read out was not on the document as it was submitted at 5:18pm. Discussion continued about potential predisposition. Vice Chairman Woody stated that the PZC is a Commission is governed by process and the point is equity and transparency.

Director Burdick briefly reviewed ongoing projects in the Land Use Department.
