Ya. That's who I'm talking about. Kelly. Backyard WWF. Gave the horse the people's elbow and every other move she could think of. 10 p.m. Marcelle Wood showcased poor leadership letting that go on.

"Experts?" Fiore talked more about himself and his farmasudical background. blah blah blah. Dave, just sold my house for $725k and skipped it e do da' ed out of town. "I really don't want to be here but everyone get a pillow while I talk for an hour and twenty" Harned. Proposed rock quarry didn't have negative impact on his property value. Cervaney's neither.

In Ledyard if you can make a powerpoint presentation now you're an expert? Bust out the participation trophies.

Carol must be in drama club, too. Performing Shakespear to a mob of selfish, closed-minded, prick, fear-baby hypocrites.

Gotta dig deeper, garbage man. Cat shit. That's all you been coming up with so far. Truth is down deeper.

Sincerely,
Kevin Blacker

The old horse is dead... was dead at the outset. Good job giving it that beat down, JoAnne. Everyone in the room needed that.... at 10 p.m. Cashman real estate "expert" bad. 5th grader could recognize that. Nice 40 minute self adsorbed presentation. Can't wait for part two next week.

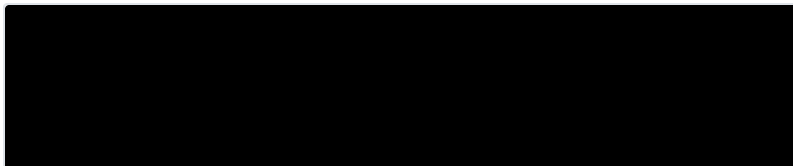

Marty Wood. Capon quit. What are you his lap dog? Do what he instructed? No. Make your own decisions. Let wind bag "experts" like Phil Fiore. Dave Harned. JoAnne Kelly and Eric Treaster have their three minutes like everyone else. If time in due process allows let them opine at length after the commissions had a chance to hear from everyone.

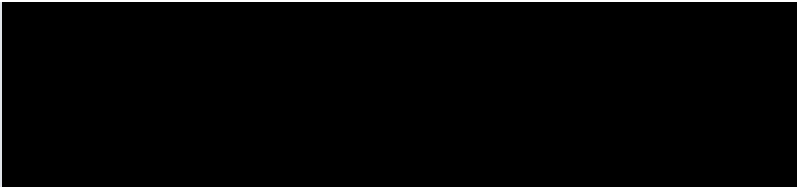

Lee Howard=garbage man

Wilson Carrol= president of high school debate club.

Sincerely,
Kevin Blacker
