Good afternoon,

Thank you for registering for SERAC's Cultural Inclusion Summer Series (Session 1) with Dr. G. Christopher Hunt! Dr. Hunt is Vice President and Dean for Equity and Inclusion at Moravian University and Instructor for Racial and Ethnic Inequality in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology. His research, "When Millennials Meet Baby Boomers: Multiple Case Study on the Experiences of Black Male College Students," examined the lived experiences of two generational cohorts of Black male college graduates. As a consultant, he has provided executive coaching and strategies to embed diversity, equity and inclusion into various business and non-profit organizations. The husband of a college dean and the father of three Generation Z children, Chris is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and earned a Master of Science in Administration from West Chester University of Pennsylvania and his undergraduate and doctoral degrees from East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania.

Session 1 Topic: Understanding Cultural Inclusion

Objectives:

1. Defining culture and cultural inclusion
2. Importance of Cultural Inclusion in Behavioral Health
3. Introduction to Disparate Populations

Below you will find all information needed for the highly interactive training on Wednesday, August 2, 2023, from 10am – 12pm EST.

This workshop is highly interactive, so we ask that you please keep your cameras on throughout the duration and actively participate.

Certificates of Participation will be made available 1-2 weeks after the training.

In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns, please contact Victoria Baker at vbaker@seracct.org.

SERAC is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
