2. MOTION to approve a revised “Town of Ledyard Employee Handbook” as presented in the draft dated March 23, 2023.

Moved by Councilor McGrattan, seconded by Councilor Irwin

Discussion: Councilor Ingalls stated that the Employee Handbook was last updated in the late 1990’s and some of the content has become outdated. She stated this was a comprehensive rewrite of the Employee Handbook, noting that included Policies as an Appendix to the Handbook, allowing for the Policies to be updated from time to time as needed without having to rewrite the Employee Handbook.

Councilor Ingalls asked Administrator of Human Resources Marisa Rodriguez whether there was a Human Resources Guidance Document that provided direction as to what belonged in an Employee Handbook versus what belonged in an Employee Contract.

Administrator of Human Resources Marisa Rodriguez explained there were guidance documents that were reviewed in drafting the updated Employee Handbook which included the current Employee Handbook, the Policy Manual, and Collective Bargaining Agreements. She stated these three documents typically include what was needed for the Employee Handbook.

The Administration Committee reviewed the Employee Handbook noting that it looked to be in-order and thorough, noting that it addressed a variety of subjects including but not limited to the following:

- ✓ Sick Time
- ✓ Holiday Pay
- ✓ Vacation Time
- ✓ Bereavement
- ✓ Health Insurance
- ✓ Retirement/Pension Benefits
- ✓ Safety
- ✓ Personal Records
- ✓ Employee Termination/Exit Interview

The Committee noted that the Employee Handbook included the following disclaimer:

- “Employees represented by a Labor Union would be governed by the polices in their collective bargaining agreement to the extent that they differ from the polices outlined in the Employee Handbook.”

Councilor Ingalls stated much of the new Employee Handbook included the same type of content as the old Employee Handbook with some of the details being updated.
