Chairman Garstka said he spoke with a few farmers in the past week to let them know that the Commission is still around. He also let the farmers know that the major drive of the Commission is to remind people that it's the farms that make Ledyard, not economic development. Chairman Garstka said once the land is gone, it's gone. He believes that the rural characteristics drive people to Ledyard. Chairman Garstka added that as time goes by more farmers will likely be approached by developers. Especially with growth at Electric Boat and the development of Great Wolf Lodge.

IX. NEW BUSINESS

1. Any other New Business to come before the Commission.

Chairman Garstka said the biggest thing is to push attendance for the joint meeting next month. Chairman Garstka added that he will ask Naomi Rodriguez, Town Council Chairperson again to remind the Town Council to get in touch with their Committee members.
