- III. RESIDENTS & PROPERTY OWNERS COMMENTS -

- IV. PRESENTATIONS

Eagle Scout Michael attending remotely via Zoom, proposed an Eagle Scout project to help the Farmers Market by making improvements to the Storage Shed which would include installing new shelving, rodent proofing, repainting, portable power supply and trash can covers. Ms. Ball would work with Michael to coordinate time and to provide Michael access to the Storage Shed.

- V. MEMBER COMMENTS

Mr. Foltz suggested the Farmers Market Committee discuss extending the dates of the Market for the 2026 Season. The Committee agreed to defer this discussion to a meeting when all members of the Committee were present.

The Farmers Market Committee expressed a Huge Thank You to the Town and to the Parks & Recreation Commission for their support during the year.

Ms. Ball noted that the Farmers Market Website would be updated to thank everyone for a Great 2025 Season. She also noted that the newsletter would be sent and that posts would be created on their Social Media site.

VI. TREASURER REPORT

- Year to Date Report – September 25, 2025
- Purchase Orders Report – September 25, 2025

Treasurer Mr. Thorne reviewed the Financial Reports noting the Total Munis Balance was in the amount of $31,175.33.

The Committee discussed looking into creating a Venmo Account; which was an on-line App that would allow them to send and receive money, pay bills, etc.

VII. MARKET MANAGER REPORT

Market Manager/Chairman Ball suggested the Farmers Market Committee look into getting a computer, printer, and ink for the volunteer members serving on the Farmers Market Committee would not be using their personal computers to conduct the business of the Farmers Market.

Ms. Ball went on to explain that the Farmers Market Google drive was half full and that they would need to update it for more storage. She also commented on the Drop Box and 3x media.
