Updates:

Mr. Novosad provided information he obtained while attending a statewide America 250 Meeting. Mr. Novosad stated that CTVisit is where all of the America 250 events will be posted. Connecticut will be hosting a Recommitment Ceremony for the Declaration of Independence; the State would like one dignitary from each town to attend and resign the declaration of independence. The state is also planning a statewide bell ringing.

Mr. Johnson stated that the Color Run has been rescheduled for May 24th, 2026, prior to the Memorial Day Parade.

Mayor Fred Allyn III has moved the Historical Maps & Roaming exhibit to April.

Mr. Lamb stated he will provide a John Deer Tractor and the wagon with hay for the America 250 Memorial Day float. Mr. Novosad and Mr. Kelley stated that they have some colonial clothing. America 250 will have Red White and Blue Bunting, Mr. Kelley stated he can provide bunting from the Nathan Lester House.

4th of July Event Update:

Mayor Fred Allyn III suggested asking 2 food trucks to participate. Mr. Johnson volunteered to obtain a list of food trucks from the Ledyard Farmer's Market and reach out to check availability. Mr. Kelley confirmed the committee would want the food trucks at the event from 10am -2pm.

Mr. Johnson stated that town van may not be available for transportation.

Mr. Novosad and Mayor Fred Allyn III volunteered to seek musicians to provide live music.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Kelley and Mr. Lamb suggested creating an opportunity for town residents to record audio memories and reflections about the community, to be incorporated into the Fourth of July celebration and potentially used for the Town's time capsule.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn the regular meeting at 1:42 p.m.

RESULT: APPROVED AND SO DECLARED
