III. CITIZENS COMMENTS

None.

IV. COMMENTS OF COMMISSION MEMBERS

1. Comments of Commission members.

Mr. Marelli commented on the site walk of the Spicer Ruins on the Clarke Farm property. He felt the walk highlighted the interests that the Agricultural, Conservation and Historical Commissions have in preserving the parcel. Chairman Garstka, who also attended the walk thought it was a welcome example of cooperation between the various Town Commissions.

Mr. Thorne reported that the State was requiring the Ledyard Farm's Market Committee to attend a mandatory seminar in order to be certified as a State recognized farmers' market and to participate in the WIC program. Mr. Holmberg explained that farmers' markets must meet certain guidelines in order to obtain State recognition as such. The guidelines were developed to help benefit the agricultural and general community.

VII. CORRESPONDENCE

1. CT Farm Bureau April Newsletter.

CT Farm Bureau is seeking donations for their lobbying efforts at the CT State House. It was discussed that if individuals wanted to contribute it was their decision. It was agreed that the Commission should not be spending Town funds on this effort. Mr. Marelli suggested that a letter should be sent to the Town's State representatives expressing concerns of the points made in the Farm Bureau's newsletter.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

VIII. OLD BUSINESS

1. Any Other Old Business to come before the Commission

None.

IX. NEW BUSINESS

1. Assess what the Commission has already done and where to go in the future.

In assessing what the Commission has already done and where to go in the future numerous examples of the Commission's progress were noted.

For the future, it was suggested:

Reach out to the Town's High School's Vocational Agricultural program and inquire if they feel there may be areas or interest that the Commission could cooperate on.

Attend the Agricultural Commission meetings of the surrounding towns to gain ideas and new insights.

Ask the Town to provide some members of the Agricultural Commission with ID cards to help identify the Commission members when visiting different agricultural shareholders to meet and speak with them.

Reach out to the general public to explain the benefits of preserving agriculture in the town. Chairman Garstka has been invited to speak to the Ledyard Rotary Club.

Hold an informational booth at one of the Town Farmer's markets.

Continue reaching out to the other Town Committees and Commissions.

Begin to explore local/town funding options for preserving agricultural enterprises in Ledyard.
