Subject: The Night Old White top beat a dead horse 40 minutes straight... at 10 p.m.
Date: Thursday, November 14, 2024 11:31:08 PM

The old horse is dead... was dead at the outset. Good job giving it that beat down, JoAnne. Everyone in the room needed that.... at 10 p.m. Cashman real estate "expert" bad. 5th grader could recognize that. Nice 40 minute self adsorbed presentation. Can't wait for part two next week.

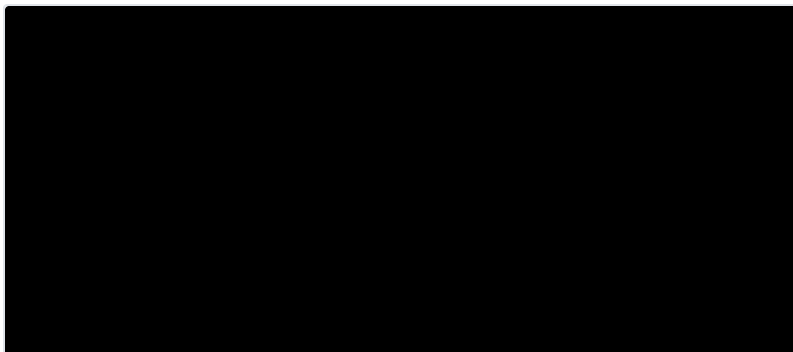

Marty Wood. Capon quit. What are you his lap dog? Do what he instructed? No. Make your own decisions. Let wind bag "experts" like Phil Fiore. Dave Harned. JoAnne Kelly and Eric Treaster have their three minutes like everyone else. If time in due process allows let them opine at length after the commissions had a chance to hear from everyone.

Lee Howard=garbage man

Wilson Carrol= president of high school debate club.

Sincerely,
Kevin Blacker
