

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING A TOWN OF LEDYARD
CODE OF ETHICS ~~AND ETHICS COMMISSION~~

Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Ledyard:

Section 1. Authority

In accordance with Chapter III, ~~Section 8~~ of the Town Charter, there is hereby established a Town of Ledyard Code of Ethics ~~and Ethics Commission~~.

Section 2. Declaration of Policy and Purpose

~~Public Office is a public trust.~~ The trust of the public is essential for government to function effectively. The proper operation of the town government requires that ~~public officers, public~~ Town officials, ~~and public~~ Town employees be independent, impartial, and responsible to the people; that governmental decision and policies be made in the proper channels of governmental structure; that public office and employment not be used for personal gain; and that the public has confidence in the integrity of its government.

~~Therefore, herewith is an established Code of Ethics for all Town Officials, Town Officers, and Town Employees. The purpose of this code is to establish standards of ethical conduct for all such officials, officers and employees, and for those who serve or conduct business with the Town of Ledyard; to assist those parties under the jurisdiction of the Ethics Commission by establishing guidelines for their conduct in order to maintain a tradition of responsible and effective public service; and to establish rules of procedure to be followed by the Ethics Commission in receiving, adjudicating, and reporting on alleged violations of the Code of Ethics.~~

Section 3. Applicability

The ~~Ethics~~ Code of Ethics shall apply to all Town ~~Officials, Town Officers, and Town Employees, whether elected and/or appointed, paid or unpaid.~~ The Ethics Code shall also apply to those conducting business with the Town of Ledyard officials, including members of the Board of Education, and all Town and Board of Education employees.

~~Specific portions of this Ordinance shall not be applicable if they conflict in whole or in part with the Town Charter, labor agreement, employment contract, or state statute.~~

~~In the application of this Code of Ethics, care will be given to distinguish between concerns of management of Town employees and violations of the public trust. The daily management of employee performance is the responsibility of the Mayor or School Superintendent in the case of the employees of Ledyard Public Schools. Personnel policies should be the first guide in those areas where applicable. Similarly, the routine activities of the Commission should be governed by its rules and regulations.~~

B. ~~b.~~ Evaluation and Acknowledgement

- ~~Within thirty (30) business days of the receipt of the specific charge(s) and/or complaints, the Ethics Commission shall call an executive session to evaluate if the filing is not in violation or is not in the proper form.~~
- ~~If the complaint is not in the proper form and/or the Ethics Commission determines that the allegations, even if true, would not constitute a violation of this Code then the Ethics Commission shall dismiss the complaint and duly notify the complainant in writing, with a copy to the Town Council and Mayor, of said fact and the reasons thereof, by registered or certified mail not later than ten (10) business days after said decision. Allegations applicable to other administrative, or judicial authority will be referred to the proper authority.~~
- ~~If the Ethics Commission determines that the complaint is in proper form and the allegations, if true would, constitute a violation of this Code then the Ethics Commission shall, not later than ten (10) business days after said determination, provide a copy of the complaint to the Town Council, Mayor and by registered or certified mail to all respondents against whom such complaint is filed, and shall provide notice of the receipt of such complaint to the complainant. The~~

~~respondent(s) shall have ten (10) business days to submit any response to the Ethics Commission.~~

~~iv. If the Complaint is applicable to this Code, the Town Council shall request the Ethics Commission convene an executive session within fourteen (14) business days of the issuance of notification to the complainant.~~

~~c. Investigation of Probable Cause Confidential Investigation~~

~~All information supplied to or received from the Ethics Commission during their evaluation or investigation shall remain confidential, as specified by provisions of the Connecticut General Statutes, Section 1-82a, in relation to operations of a Commission of Ethics, unless the Commission makes a finding of probable cause for a hearing, or unless the respondent requests in writing that the entire record and any hearings be open to the public.~~

~~The Ethics Commission shall within thirty (30) business days from the receipt of the assignment evaluate the complaint to determine whether the person who is the subject of the complaint is under the jurisdiction of the Ethics Commission; whether the act(s) alleged in the complaint, if proven, would constitute a violation of the Code.~~

~~If the Ethics Commission accepts jurisdiction, it shall so advise both the complainant and respondent by certified mail and provide a copy of the complaint (and any other information submitted by the complainant) to the respondent that it will conduct a probable cause determination and invite the respondent to provide any information the respondent deems relevant to the Commission's determination of probable cause. Such information must be submitted to the Commission within twenty one (21) business days of notification.~~

~~i. Within thirty~~thirty~~sixty (30~~60~~) business days after the response period specified in the previous paragraph of the receipt of a complaint, the Ethics Commission shall ~~meet in an executive session to review and~~ determine if whether there is probable cause that a violation of the Code of Ethics has occurred. ~~In so doing,~~ A finding of probable cause means that based on a review of the available information the Ethics Commission ~~shall only consider the information submitted by~~ determines that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the respondent engaged in prohibited conduct by the Code of Ethics. If the Ethics Commission does not make a finding of probable cause, the complaint shall be dismissed and a copy of its decision shall be mailed to both the complainant and the respondent. Unless the Ethics Commission makes a finding of probable cause, a complaint alleging a violation of this Code of Ethics shall be confidential except upon the request of the respondent.~~

~~ii. If the Ethics Commission ~~does not find~~makes a finding of probable cause ~~of a violation of the Code, it shall notify in writing to, which shall require four (4) affirmative votes, it shall so advise~~ both the complainant and ~~the~~ respondent ~~within five (5) business days of its findings and a summary of the reasons and the complaint, and the record of investigation shall remain confidential. Upon a finding of no probable cause, the case file will be sealed and all matters pertaining thereto shall remain confidential.~~and began a formal investigation process.~~

~~If the Ethics Commission determines, by four (4) affirmative votes that there is probable cause of a violation of the code, it shall notify the complainant, respondent, Town Council and Mayor in writing within five (5) business days of such determination. The Town~~

~~Council will authorize the Ethics Commission to perform an investigation. An investigation shall be conducted within (90) business days of determining whether the complaint is in violation of this Code.~~

~~All notifications under this section shall be sent via certified mail, return receipt requested. In the conduct of its investigation, the Ethics Commission shall have the power to hold hearings, administer oaths, examine witnesses, receive oral and documentary evidence, subpoena witnesses, and to require the production for examination by the Commission of any books and papers as permitted by law which are relevant in any manner under investigation or in question.~~

~~All parties and witnesses shall be duly sworn under oath prior to testifying before the Commission.~~

~~During the investigation, the complainant shall be allowed to present evidence, including documents and witnesses. The respondent(s) shall have the right to appear and be heard and offer any information which may tend to clear the respondent of probable cause to believe that the respondent has violated any provision of the Code of Ethics. The respondent shall be allowed to present evidence, including documents and witnesses. The respondent shall be allowed to examine and cross-examine witnesses presented and be allowed to offer before the Ethics Commission any evidence or witnesses on their behalf.~~

C. d. Hearings.

- i. If the Ethics Commission decides that probable cause of a violation of the Code of Ethics exists, it will conduct a public hearing to determine whether or not a violation occurred in accordance with Uniform Administrative Procedure Act ("UAPA") (See Chapter 54 of the Connecticut General Statutes). At the hearing, the respondent will have the right to be represented by legal counsel, to present evidence and witnesses and compel attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, records and papers, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses and inspect and copy relevant and material records, papers and documents not in such person's possession. Hearings are not governed by the legal rules of evidence and any information relevant to the matter may be considered. The Ethics Commission will respect the rules of privilege recognized by the law. Not later than ten (10) days before the start of the hearing, the Ethics Commission will provide the respondent with a list of its intended witnesses. The Ethics Commission will make a record of the proceedings.

D. Final Decisions.

- i. Decisions by the Ethics Commission that a person is in violation of the Code of Ethics must result from the concurring vote of four (4) of its members.
- ii. The Ethics Commission must render its decision within sixty (60) days of the closing of the hearing.
- iii. Such finding and memorandum will be deemed to be the final decision of the Commission for the purposes of the UAPA. The respondent may appeal to the superior court in accordance with the provisions of Section 4-183 of the Connecticut General Statutes.
