XI. NEW BUSINESS

1. CEAP (Connecticut Energy Assistance Program) Update

Ms. Chapman stated that the deadline for fuel deliveries was extended through March 31st. Applications for assistance are still open at this time and Ms. Chapman is available to assist residents with applying. Applications that are accepted after March 3, 2023 may be able to receive a credit to their utility account.

2. Parks & Recreation Summer Camp Scholarships

Ms. Chapman stated that applications for summer camp scholarships will begin on the same day that Parks & Recreation begins accepting registrations in early spring. Ms. Chapman will send an email blast to the current Ledyard Social Services Client list announcing the acceptance of applications. Funding is limited and applications are processed in the order received. The fundraising campaign for scholarships will launch on Monday, April 3rd. Ms. Chapman stated that last year 20 scholarships totally $9,556.25 were awarded. Ms. Chapman asked for any other fundraising ideas for the scholarships program in addition to grants and community donations. Mr. Grim suggested contacting the Fire and Police Unions.

Mr. Grimm inquired about the cost of summer camp. Ms. Chapman stated the cost is $125 per child per week. Ms. Shipley stated that the price is a good deal. Mr. Grimm stated that when his children attended camp in Groton for the cost for the entire summer was $250. Ms. Chapman stated that towns vary in funding for these programs. The Board also discussed the hours of the program and the difficulty for working parents as camp hours are 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Ms. Chapman stated that residents with concerns regarding the cost or hours of the program should attend the Parks & Recreation Commission meeting. Ms. Chapman stated that the summer camp program falls under the purview of Parks & Recreation Department and it is Ms. Chapman's understanding that any limitations in hours are funding related. Chairman Bozym clarified that anyone with concerns about the program or program hours contact Parks & Recreation. Chairman Bozym reiterated that Social Services provides scholarships for those in need of funding assistance. Ms. Bozym stated that it is helpful to know where to direct people with questions.

Any New Business proper to come before the Board

Ms. Chapman shared that the Town of Ledyard has a new Veterans Representative. Dave Nelson is available to assist veterans and active duty service members with service related issues. Residents seeking to make an appointment with Mr. Nelson should contact Kristen Chapman at 860-464-3222. Chairman Bozym suggested that Mr. Nelson would be a good option for the first Presentation. Ms. Chapman will reach out to Mr. Nelson regarding his availability to present.
