Please tell us about yourself and why you want to serve.

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

As a Ledyard resident and experienced construction professional, I’m interested in serving on the Planning and Zoning Committee to contribute my practical knowledge of building, land use, and development to support the town’s growth. With over a decade of experience in residential and commercial construction, I understand how zoning decisions impact both community character and future development. I want to bring a youthful, forward-thinking perspective to help ensure that Ledyard continues to grow responsibly while preserving the integrity and quality of life that make our town special.
