

At this point, we respectfully ask: Where does this stand?

We urge the Administrative Committee to bring this matter back to the table for discussion, completion, and adoption. Ensuring fair representation is essential to maintaining trust and equity in how we govern.

Towns across Connecticut have already taken action to ensure transparency, accountability, and public trust in their governance. These include:

- Norwich, CT: Ethics Commission consists of five members and two alternates none of whom may not be officers, officials, or employees of the City. The Code of Ethics is in Chapter 2, Article IV of the Norwich Code of Ordinances.
- Burlington, CT: Ethics Commission investigates allegations of unethical conduct or illegal activity that reflects poorly on the town.
- East Hampton, CT: Ethics Commission acts as an independent body to hear and investigate complaints under a local Code of Ethics and Conduct.
- Glastonbury, CT: Ethics Commission interprets and enforces a local ethics code for officials, consultants, employees, and residents.
- Somers, CT: Ethics Commission reviews and investigates potential ethics violations from public officials and contractors.
- Windham, CT: Ethics Commission upholds the town's ethics code and promotes government accountability.

These towns provide clear, accessible guidance for public servants and the community alike. Ledyard should be no different.

Thank you for your time and attention to these pressing matters. We look forward to your response.
