Education & Experiences

Please tell us about yourself and why you want to serve.

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I believe it is essential to be an active and productive member of the community. The responsibility of governing organizations is to take care of people first. Everything we do must support that principle. Maintaining our quality of life and searching for compatible economic development is key to our town's long term growth.

Community Involvement

In the two and half years living in Ledyard, I have found a number of important issues to commit my energies too. The key to anything I decide to be a part of is will it improve and/or protect our community. Additionally, I would devote the time and energy required for any position I accepted in service of our town.

Educational Background

- I have been part of the development for approximately 100 restaurants from approval to opening - Lead sales building program that included physical plant changes as a key element to reach success - President of restaurant concept establishing all standards of operation - Held position of Corporate Ombudsman reporting to CEO.
