

Hi Ed,

The dashboard for Ledyard composition are explained below, please note that the # of letters sent out is not an accurate representation of # of unknowns, but rather more of a representation of how many contacts needed to be reached (For example some may have been apartment communities that fewer letters were required for). Please also know this dashboard is dynamic and changing as we fix some GIS inputs, but overall is a ballpark representation:

