VII. CHAIRMAN REPORT

1. General Report.

Chairman Lamb thanked the new Regular members Amy Chittim and Kelly Lamb for stepping up to the Commission.

The Commission is invited to the Agricultural Commission Joint meeting on March 19, 2024. Further discussion about various Commission meetings during "Any Other New Business".

RESULT: DISCUSSED

2. Financial Reports.

Chairman Lamb asked Mr. Godino to meet with him to assist him in getting more familiar with the POs and the reports.

There is a request for an EB Extermination PO.

There is a Holdridge invoice that Chairman Lamb will need to confirm who made the purchase, NLH or Sawmill?

Phase I and II of the School House windows have been completed and payment sent.

NLH contract - comments have been sent to Quiet corner Restoration.

ARPA has approximately $120,000.

REP maintenance, is this Historic Commission's or a mistake? Chairman Lamb will inquire with Matt Bonin, Finance Director.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

VIII. CORRESPONDENCE

Chairman Lamb asked to Commission to give him any correspondence so it could be added to the agenda.

IX. COMMITTEE REPORTS

1. Sawmill Committee - Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes said in a report by Mr. Ganong they found which is believed to be the valve for the bypass at the Sawmill Pond. It will eventually need to be repaired but finding it was the first step, more to follow.

The Sawmill will open in April for Sawmill Operations, the volunteers have been busy preparing for opening.

Mr. Barnes will schedule a meeting with the State to inquire if a permit is needed to line the inlet conduit to operate the Sawmill.

Ms. Chittim asked if anyone from the Sawmill knew of a person who has the equipment to cut through a five-foot diameter tree that fell on the Tri-Town Trail. Mr. Godino said he could give Ms. Chittim a contact that was used by the Cemetery Committee.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

2. Nathan Lester House - Mr. Kelley.

Mr. Kelley reported the past weekend's events;

The first Ledyard Garden Club cleanup of the year.

The Trail Life group camped out from Friday, March 15 -16.

The Community egg roll sponsored by Bishop Seabury Anglican Church was held on Saturday March 16 and was very well attended (approximately 200 people).

The bid for the work on the East Side of the NLH has been awarded and pending final arrangements work will begin in early April.

The Fox Sisters movie filming staging has been completely removed from the lower lever of the NLH. The upper-level removal has not yet been completed. The house will be staged in a more traditional manner.

Mr. Kelley has been speaking with Sharon Primmitt, Nathan Lester House Caretaker to reiterate the NLH needs and have compiled a priority list;

Short list:

Repaint the Dining Room.

Paint the downstairs floors (already painted but in poor condition).

Service kitchen needs clearing and reorganizing.

Improvements to entrance lawn;

Fence - repairs, completion of painting and pulling sod back from the fence to prevent moisture from creeping up on the wood.

Augment the paving stone walkway with pea gravel on both sides. Also, add period appropriate plantings here.

Reestablish the Official Nathan Lester House Committee in April.

Chairman Lamb said he met with the NLH Caretakers to discuss upcoming events. He also spoke with Mary McGratten and set up a date for the Rotary Club event at the NLH on May 9, 2024, at 7:00 a.m.

Chairman Lamb said that he and Mr. Kelley are taking a field trip to the Weston History and Culture Center for a private tour sometime in April and will let the other Commissioners know when the date is decided.

Ms. Parkinson mentioned that June 1-2 is CT Trails Day and there may be an influx of people at the NLH on those dates.

She also mentioned that in her Spicer research she found out that Nathan Lester married a Spicer therefore there is a strong connection between the Spicer ruins and the NLH.

Mr. Kelley said that the question they are asked most often during NLH events/tours is about the relations of the Lester family. He said it is important to understand what all of the relationships are.

Mr. Godino said the mower needs maintenance ASAP. Usually it costs around $200-$250.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

3. Research/Preservation.

Chairman Lamb said this is his last Research & Preservation report.

There is good progress being made at the GOSA site with the Lambtown Historical site. Ms. Ericson will be the lead on this project. She has created a 3D rendering of the park garden including benches, native plants and local apple trees, such as wolf apples. It was said that wolf apples are very large and good for baking.

GOSA would like to sift through the dirt in the Lambtown Historical site. Ms. Chittim said that Chairman Lamb is welcome to use her sifter.

The Spicer Site roadmap - Ms. Parkinson said she needs to schedule a walk with the Land Use members to decide how to do the mapping. The Commission doesn't need much, just the land where the farmhouse, gardens, animal pens and the little barn were. Drone pictures may be helpful. Discussion to be had on developing roles and responsibilities for this project.

Outstanding signs - the Nine Mile House, the Watrous Place and the Latham Place.

After Spicer and Lambtown are completed Chairman Lamb would like to start suggesting some spots for the Rogerene Park.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

4. Center School - Mr. Geer.

Chairman Lamb spoke in Mr. Geer's absence. He said the window project is finished and are now starting to organize a Ledyard District class visit (five classes and 100 students). May have some original students present.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

5. Social Media.

Ms. Kelley said she was able to host a couple of community questions regarding old photographs.

Recent postings;

The Egg roll event.

Before and after windows for the Schoolhouse.

Before of the Nathan Lester House.

Historic photograph of the water house on Lambtown Road.

Future posting of before photographs of the Sawmill.

There are now 135 members on the Commission's Facebook page. A 16.7% increase since February, with engagement up 90%.

RESULT: DISCUSSED

EXCUSED 2 Barnes Geer

3. Any Other New Business to come before the Commission.

Chairman Lamb offered positions as Liaisons;

Ms.Chittim accepted the position as the new Research and Preservation Liaison.

Ms. Lamb accepted the position as the new Social Media Liaison.

Chairman Lamb named the Commission's partners and said it was important for members to reach out occasionally to the partners to keep communication lines open.

Partners;

Garden Club - Mr. Kelley

Ledyard Beautification Committee - Chairman Lamb and Mr. Kelley. Chairman Lamb will occasionally attend LBC meetings.

Tri Town Trail - Ms. Parkinson

GOSA - Chairman Lamb

Ledyard Historical Society - Mr. Godino attends the Society's meetings.

Volunteers;

Victoria Ericson - Coordinator / Point of Contact for the Lambtown Pollinator Garden (GOSA property).

Alyssa Siegel-Miles - Consultant for the Lambtown Pollinator Garden (GOSA property).

Strategic Plans - Chairman Lamb would like to challenge each lead to formulate strategic plans and visions for their areas. In a few months the Commission will discuss the plans/visions.

Grants and partnerships may be able to help achieve goals. Mr. Kelley said he would like to partner with the Schools, for field trips and education. He said it's important to hook in students or interest in history will die.

Ms. Parkinson suggested that the Commission reviews GO "Get Outdoors" Groton, which is a partnership with GOSA, Groton Public Schools and Parks and Recreation to get students outdoors for educational hikes. Maybe Ledyard can start something similar?

Ms. Chittim announced that she will be going on maternity leave for eight weeks and will return at the end of May. Chairman Lamb wished her luck with her family.

Chairman Lamb wanted the Commission to discuss and vote on how to disperse the $4000.00 donation funds received from the Fox Sisters filming.

Mr. Kelley was in favor of giving a portion to the Garden Club and the Historical Society since they are yearlong supporters of the NLH. He also thought the caretakers should receive a portion for their disruption and their assistance in getting the NLH ready for filming. All agreed.

$500.00 Garden Club

$500.00 Ledyard Historical Society

$500.00 Caretakers

Motion to APPROVE donations received from the Fox Sister donation to be dispersed in the amount of $500.00 to the Garden Club, $500.00 to the Ledyard Historical Society and $500.00 to the NLH Caretakers (tenants).
